ROBERT GARCIA SALON

Robert Garcia is a celebrated master hair colorist whose clients are among the most prominent socialites, actors, and sports figures in the USA. Robert was born in Havana, Cuba on 31 March 1965. The family moved to South Florida in 1969 and Robert now spends his time between Ft. Lauderdale and New York.

In 1995, Robert designed and marketed the first hands-free blow dryer holder. This innovative product has been showcased in many domestic and international publications. Robert has appeared on HSN, QVC, Shop NBC, South Florida's Channel 6 and Deco Drive, and has been widely featured in many other television shows.

Robert starred in one of the most widely viewed and enjoyed episodes of Split Ends on the Style Network in February 2007. Prior to the grand opening of his newest showcase salon in Fort Lauderdale, Robert owned and operated salons in Bal Harbour and Davie, Florida.
